In addition, to assist employees with their personal expenses related to the crisis, Molina disbursed $500 to each of its eligible 9,000 employees, representing approximately $4.5 million in total disbursements. The Company is also implementing pay enhancements for essential employees. Further, to help address the various challenges that employees may be facing, Molina implemented an additional COVID-19 paid leave policy granting all employees designated time off (80 hours), and is waiving all COVID-19 testing and treatment costs for employees.

Community support:

Since the national state of emergency was declared due to the pandemic, Molina has committed support and resources to various nonprofits serving those in need across the country, including New York, Washington, New Mexico, Ohio, Michigan, California, Florida, Texas, and other evolving hot-spot states. The support, supplies, and monetary donations have been made to an array of trusted organizations that directly serve vulnerable populations. The spirit of community support is deeply embedded in Molina's culture through its "Helping Hands" program, which has allowed employees to contribute over 180,000 hours of volunteer time since launching in 2013.
