FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PREMERA BLUE CROSS TO TRANSFER MEDICAID AND BASIC HEALTH PLAN CONTRACTS AND MEMBERS TO MOLINA HEALTHCARE OF WASHINGTON

BOTHELL, Wash. (Mar. 1, 2004) – Molina Healthcare of Washington and Premera Blue Cross today announced that the two companies have reached an agreement to transfer Premera’s Medicaid and Basic Health contracts and members to Molina Healthcare of Washington. Pending approval by the state Health Care Authority and Medical Assistance Administration of the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services, Molina will begin the transition to provide healthcare services to its new members.

“Medicaid and Basic Health managed-care products make up a very small part of Premera’s business,” said Premera communications director Scott Forslund. “Molina specializes in Medicaid products and is well suited to serve our members. This agreement will allow each company to focus on what it does best.”

Premera Blue Cross of Washington has served members throughout Washington through its Healthy Options and Basic Health products. The Premera family of companies serves nearly 1.6 million members through a wide variety of group and individual plans. About 1.4 percent of Premera members are enrolled in the Basic Health Plan, and 2.7 percent in Healthy Options.

Through this agreement, Molina Healthcare of Washington will be adding approximately 43,000 Healthy Options members and 23,000 Basic Health Plan members from Premera Blue Cross. The addition of Premera members increases Molina Healthcare of Washington’s total health plan membership to approximately 260,000.

“We are excited to welcome the Premera members to Molina,” said Ann Koontz, president and CEO of Bothell-based Molina Healthcare of Washington. “Our commitment to our members is unwavering, and we are working diligently to ensure a smooth transition. As the largest Medicaid provider in the state, Molina is well prepared to serve Premera’s Medicaid members,” added Koontz.

About Molina Healthcare
